This commission, Mrs. Rutledge mys, is of grent importance in the child welfare work, as it is expected to interest itself directly in the cause of the child.

CONTRACTORS AN ULTIMATUM

CONTRACTORS AN ULTIMATUM
Union carpenters have called a meeting for Wediesday night at the labor half to consider the demands which have been made upon the building contractors for an increase from 55 to 62 1-2 cents per hour. The notice of the meeting says that a vote on strike resolutions will be taken at that time, and all carpenters belonging to the union are freed to attend.

The saw and hammer men have alven the coutractors until April 1 to mart their demands for an increase in pay. The resolutions to be passed Wednesday night are expected to be an ultimatum.
